He calls him "Shiro".

He doesn't remember him anymore, but he really likes Shiro as a friend.

Although he did not establish a new relationship with Shiro, who returned, he feels a mysterious familiarity with Adolf K. Weissmann, a German teacher who was appointed at a strange time.

[TOWARDS YUKIZOME KUKURI]

He calls her "Yukizome-san".

She is in the same class and likes for the kindness of her. He knew very well that Kukuri was kind to everyone and that he wasn't special on his own, but he worked hard to come out. However, even if he approached her normally, she could not notice it at all and it was so, so he decided to perform a confession operation that left a strong impression. He knows that he is no longer on her mind, and he is trying to hold out as a good friend, but he still likes her.
